THE LOVELY LIGHT OF GOD

A Christian group whose music I enjoy is "Addison Road." In their rendition of "This Little Light of Mine," they insert the lyric: "There's a little light in each of us." Sure enough! The light of God is within each of God's creatures!

Not only does our Savior Jesus Christ proclaim, "I am the light of the world." (John 8:12 and John 9:5) Christ also energizes us to live as his followers by offering us this promise, "You are the light of the world." (Matthew 5:14)

One hot afternoon this summer, I was standing outside of church watering plants and bushes. A friend happened to be leaving the building and paused to ask, "Pastor Dan, are you familiar with the 'Desiderata'?"

It seemed to ring a bell... but only vaguely. So I answered, "Uh, I've heard of it. But I don't remember what it is."

With that, my friend handed me a paper copy. He jumped in his vehicle and was on his way.

It was only later, after I had finished working outside, that I took a genuine look at the piece of paper my friend had given me. That's when I realized the beauty of the words placed in my hands. It is a ray of God's light. 'Desiderata' is an inspirational piece written in 1927 by a poet from Indiana named Max Ehrmann.

'DESIDERATA'

"Go placidly amid the noise and the haste, and remember what peace there may be in silence.

As far as possible without surrender be on good terms with all persons.

Speak your truth quietly and clearly; and listen to others, even to the dull and the ignorant; they too have their story.

Avoid loud and aggressive persons, they are vexations to the spirit.

If you compare yourself with others, you may become vain or bitter; for always there will be greater and lesser persons than yourself.

Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans.

Keep interested in your own career, however humble; it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time.

Exercise caution in your business affairs; for the world is full of trickery.

But let not this blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals; and everywhere life is full of heroism.

Be yourself.

Especially, do not feign affection.

Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity and disenchantment it is as perennial as the grass.

Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth.

Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune.

But do not distress yourself with dark imaginings.

Many fears are born of fatigue and loneliness.

Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself.

You are a child of the universe, no less than the trees and the stars; you have a right to be here.

And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should.

Therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive God to be.

And whatever your labors and aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life keep peace in your soul.

With all its sham, drudgery and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world.

Be cheerful.

Strive to be happy."

Not long ago, as part of our Rally Day 'Spirit Quest' Celebration at Ivy Chapel UCC, you and I were invited to respond to a superb question: "Where do we experience the Spirit?"

One of my personal responses is that I recently experienced the Spirit of God on a scorching, July afternoon through the thoughtfulness of a friend who handed me the lovely words of 'Desiderata.'

May you be at peace with God,
Pastor Dan

When we are dead, and people weep for us and grieve, let it be because we touched their lives with beauty and simplicity. Let it not be said that life was good to us, but, rather, that we were good to life.

~ Jacob Rudin

Remember that when you leave this earth, you can take with you nothing that you have received...but only what you have given: a full heart, enriched by honest service, love, sacrifice, and courage.

~ Saint Francis of Assisi

Thank you...

To my Ivy family, I cannot begin to thank you enough for all of your prayers and concerns during my recent ordeal. (I never do anything the easy way!) I'm sure you are glad to hear Pastor Dan asking for prayers for someone other than Linda Ledbetter! (One last thing—if you ever find yourself in the condition I was in, be sure to get on Rosalie's meatloaf list; it will help cheer you right up!!) Gratefully, Linda Ledbetter

ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATION

Council has been discussing saving paper, postage and time (both that of members and of the church office administrator) by expanding electronic communications beyond The Ivy Vine. This would include:

- The Ivy Vine
- The annual report
- Notification letters for congregational and annual meetings in October and January
- Notices of special meetings
- Lay leadership reminders about liturgist, coffee hour host, greeters, ushers, acolytes, etc.
- Fundraising letters for dinners, HarvestFest, trivia nights, etc.

Please fill out the form E-Communications Request Form and place in the offering plate or return to the church office if you wish to receive the above Ivy Chapel communications via email. Please include all family members' email addresses on the form. It will be your responsibility to keep your email address up-to-date with the church office.

CONFERENCE MINISTER GUEST

Once again, our Missouri Mid-South Conference Minister, the Rev. Jeff Whitman, will soon be our guest at Ivy Chapel U.C.C. Rev. Whitman will preach at our morning worship on Sunday, September 16th. It is always a joy to welcome Rev. Whitman among us. We look forward to worshipping God together.

RELIEF TO REJUVENATE

Ivy Youth in Action

YOUTH GROUP NEWS

Ivy Chapel has youth groups for all youth grades 1 - 12.

Our groups are:

Lambs: Grades 1 – 3/Genesis: Grades 4 – 6

Ark: Grades 7 & 8/Alpha-Omega: Grades 9 – 12

Our Youth Groups are currently planning activities for the upcoming school year. Watch the IYIA purple page in the Sunday Bulletin for more information on upcoming events. We will also be posting the calendar of youth events on the youth bulletin board in Fellowship Hall, as well as on the website as soon as all groups have finalized their plans. If you have any questions about our youth groups contact Linda Lowry.

Medical Information/Release/Photo Release forms are required to be on file in the Christian Ed office for each participant. Please fill out your forms and return them to Linda Lowry as soon as possible.

YOUTH GROUP PLANNING MEETINGS

Our Lambs/Genesis youth met on August 19 to plan their activities for the year. Watch for a complete calendar on the Youth Bulletin Board in Fellowship Hall. If you are a part of this group and would like to plan an activity, contact Linda Lowry.

The Ark/Alpha-Omega youth group met on August 26. We planned a year full of mission activities and fun, fellowship events. Look at our schedule, mark your calendars and be sure to plan to attend all of our great activities!

ALL YOUTH TRIP TO THE ZOO! Sunday, Sept. 30

Our first youth activity for the new school year will be an All Youth Group trip to the Zoo following worship on September 30. Along with touring the Zoo, Shannon Farrell will be leading us in some special activities at the Primate House.

ATTENTION YOUTH!

Bring a friend! The more the merrier – your friends are always welcome at our youth group activities (must be the same age/grade as the group).

An emergency release form may need to be signed by parents of friends before attending.

Many of our activities are multi-age. Our youth of all ages love to do things together. This year we have planned lots of activities to which the entire congregation is invited. Watch the Sunday Keeping You Posted and IYIA for more information.

Let's all be involved in these intergenerational events!

ATTENTION ALL MIDDLE SCHOOL YOUTH!

Can These Bones Live?

Do you ever feel like just a pile of bones? It's like getting a really bad case of the Blahs. Well snap out of it! We're going to look at what God did with an entire valley of dry bones. God didn't do it alone and it wasn't a onetime thing.

|God is waiting to Renew, Reconnect & Revive us.

So pick up your pile of bones and join us!

Mark your calendars for the 2012 Conference Middle School Event!
Sept. 28 & 29, Camp MoVal in Union, Missouri

This year's awesome retreat will be September 28th - 29th. CMSE is a tool for enhancing Middle School youth ministry in local congregations by helping youth connect with their peers from around the Conference. Music, worship, theme presentations, play times, discussion groups, and "hang time" are all part of the weekend. Check in will start at 7 pm on Friday, September 28th and the event will end at approximately 8:00 pm on Saturday, September 29th. And we won't be alone...our event will end by combining with the Eastern Association's Revival held over at TAMBO. It's like getting two great events for the price of one!

Youth currently in grades 6th, 7th, & 8th and their adult advisors are all invited to this life changing event. The cost of $50 per youth or adult will be paid from the money our youth have raised through fundraisers. Go to www.missourimidsouth.org for more details and registration information (or see the flyer in Fellowship Hall). You don't want to miss out!

Parents: If you'd like to be an adult sponsor for this activity let me know. This is a great way to be involved with your child in a conference wide UCC event!

The Note

Anna DiVesta, Minister of Music
music@ivychapel.org

Well, I have spent the last two weeks listening to Christmas music for this year's cantata. Somehow, my body knows Christmas music = colder weather. Then, today, as I went for a walk with Miller, I was quickly reminded that it is August, one of the hottest months. It was so muggy. I guess I'll just have to settle for a/c and Christmas music. Regardless, GOOD NEWS!!!! I've decided on a cantata. I'm so excited, but it's only August. So, I'll leave you all in suspense until we get closer.

Also, I realized a couple weeks ago that I have not expressed how much I enjoy being a part of the Ivy Chapel community. My family and I truly feel like we are part of a family. I love knowing that if I really needed something or that if something happened to me, someone would be there to help. It is so reassuring to me, and I feel like I've never really said anything specific to anyone. I love each and every one of you, and I hope that you feel the same way about us. If any of you need help even if it's non music related, please know that Aaron or I would be there for you. Sappiness aside....

It's CHOIR TIME! Woo hoo! I am so happy to be back in the swing of things with the Chancel Choir. I've missed it so much. I've been busy picking out anthems for this year, and I'm super excited! Also, Myrna and I went to a new music reading session with my personal favorite arranger, Mark Hayes. We had a great time, and I got some great ideas for the future so be on the look out (hear out???) for some new anthems. Hooray! As always, we would love to see some new faces in the choir loft. Don't be shy...MOST of the choir members don't bite.

Anyway, I hope you all had a great summer. I wish the best of luck to all our students and teachers returning to school, and hopefully, the weather will cool off soon! (please)

Until next time...
Keep Smiling,
Anna-

It might be too dark to play ball but Debbie and Russ will have lot's of other games to play. Or maybe you'll just want to visit and watch others play the games. It'll be nice to have your company.

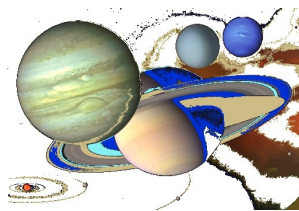

Please let Debbie know that you can come by e-mailing your RSVP to debrusswashburn@gmail.com. If you don't have an e-mail address you can call and leave a message at 314-991-3811.

See Erin Winship, Sunday School Superintendent, if you'd like to teach and she'll get you scheduled with a week/class. This is a wonderful and rewarding way to share your faith with our young people.

CLASS FOR TEENS

INTERNATIONAL DISASTER RELIEF

Earthquakes, drought, cyclones, civil conflict and other disasters occur around the world almost daily. Gifts to the International Disaster Fund enable the UCC to respond more fully to these. Donations may also be made out to Wider Church Ministries, and mailed to United Church of Christ, Financial Services, 700 Prospect Avenue, Cleveland, OH 44115. Gifts may be designated to a specific disaster, or marked for International Disaster Relief.

CALLED TO ACCEPT THE COST AND SHARE THE JOY OF DISCIPLESHIP

STEWARDSHIP JOURNEY CONTINUES...

Our congregation will embark on a stewardship pilgrimage from Sunday, September 23 through Sunday, October 14. This journey will be a continuation of the theme addressed in 2011:

"CALLED TO ACCEPT THE COST AND SHARE THE JOY OF DISCIPLESHIP."

Stewardship mailings will be sent to the congregation this autumn as our "journey" together progresses. A Stewardship Dessert featuring our Guest Witnessing Steward is planned for the evening of Thursday, October 4. This will serve as an opportunity for everyone in our congregation to enjoy highly personal interaction with our Guest Steward.

Our shared stewardship "journey" will culminate on Consecration Sunday, October 14, when we will celebrate by offering God our 2013 Estimates of Giving during worship and by sharing lunch together. We thank God for actively guiding us as we devote our hearts and souls to the joys of faithful discipleship; in particular, making personal commitments supporting Christ's ministries lived out through Ivy Chapel United Church of Christ.
