becoming God's instruments

An anonymous disciple lovingly placed on our fellowship hall bulletin board a small yet profound, business-sized card bearing the image of a white dove carrying an olive branch in its beak. Its message inspires me. The card reads

*When I am listened to, trusted, respected and forgiven,
I experience your love and God's love*

Help me to learn to be respectful of others

Help me to learn to listen, really listen

Help me to be trustworthy

Help me to trust

Help me to be able to give and accept forgiveness

Help me to be an instrument of God's love and peace

*When I listen, respect, trust and forgive,
I experience your love and God's love*

What a beautiful commentary on life!

Let these simple words inspire you.

May each human being seek to live as an instrument of God's love and peace,
Pastor Dan

CHESTERFIELD COMMUNITY PRESCHOOL

NEW PRESCHOOL OPENING

Chesterfield Community Preschool will be hosting an open house on Sunday, August 6th from 11:30am-1:00pm. After service, please come tour the Montessori classroom, meet Birdie Pruessner, the director, and enjoy kettle corn and snow cones! This event will start the 30 day countdown to our first day of school and will be the first time our classroom is open to future students. Your prayers and endless support of this project have been truly appreciated and we can't wait to show you what we've been up to!

Birdie Pruessner
(Director/Founder of Chesterfield Community Preschool)

To My IVY FAMILY:

As many of you know my sister Lynn Goeddel has been waging a very brave battle against pancreatic cancer since Fall of 2014. After undergoing a very major surgery and receiving postoperative chemotherapy and radiation she is once again receiving treatment for lung metastases. Even though she has some rough days after her treatments she remains strong in her faith and in her fight.

My family and our friends will be walking in Lynn's honor in the Purple Stride St Louis 2017 walk on September 24th in Forest Park. Lynn plans to walk as well! We would love to have Ivy walkers join us! Our team name is "Walking for Lynn" and you can register by visiting the website Purplestridestlouis2017. Please contact me with any questions! The goal is to double the survival rate for this deadly disease by the year 2020. We hope to see you on September 24! Thank you for your continued thoughts and prayers.

Sincerely, Celeste Tichy

THE GROUND 'N' GRUNT WORK NOT TO MENTION THE PAPERWORK...

July has continued to be a busy month. The architect, Ralph Hall, has completed his work. Paperwork and drawings have been submitted and approved by Monarch Fire District and the City of Chesterfield. With any luck we will have received our approval from St. Louis County by the time you read this. Hackett Security (Fire Alarm Contractor) is putting the finishing touches on their papers and will then file for required permits. We anticipate alarm work beginning later July and wrapping up by middle of August.

A very successful playground/work day was held. Sod was cut and removed from what will become the climbing area of the playground. Sod was relocated to bare spots in the lower playground area. Birdie Pruessner (Director/Founder) and her family painted the preschool classroom and have started putting the finish on the playground playhouse, Additional playground work will continue in August.

This journey has been a rollercoaster. God has shown us God's sense of humor, but has guided our footsteps. We are confident that everything will come together on time for the opening of Chesterfield Community Preschool.

Ivy's Children Need You

The Christian Education Board is looking for a few people to help teach Sunday school. Teachers usually teach one Sunday per month, but we appreciate any time you can offer. If you don't want to commit to once a month, consider taking the fifth Sunday of the month—there are only four of those each year. Please prayerfully consider sharing God's word with our smallest brothers and sisters in Christ. Contact Sarah Heend or Linda Lowry if you can help.

GOD'S SUPER HEROES!!

August 20 - Rally Day 2017!

Do good! Seek peace and go after it! Psalm 34:14b

God's Heroes Have Heart! God's Heroes Have Courage! God's Heroes Have Wisdom!
God's Heroes Have Hope and God's Heroes Have Power!

Be one of God's Super Heroes!!

Clear your calendars for Sunday, August 20th and get ready to help Ivy Chapel's children and youth start the new Sunday School year. We're going to be Super Heroes for God!

Join us for worship on Rally Day and DISCOVER YOUR STRENGTH IN GOD!

Sign up for our Rally Day Luncheon

After worship Ivy Chapel UCC's Super Heroes will fly right into Fellowship Hall and continue the celebration with our annual Rally Day luncheon. Harness your super powers; dig out your favorite recipe for lunch and help kick off a new Sunday School season. A sign-up sheet for lunch will be appearing soon in the Narthex!

PLAN YOUR FAVORITE YOUTH ACTIVITY

Do you have any ideas for youth activities you'd like to plan for this month? A service project? A Fellowship activity? Let Linda Lowry know and we can organize it!

SUNDAY SCHOOL TEACHERS NEEDED!

Would you like to try your hand at teaching one of our Sunday School classes? Share your faith and your love with our children. You'll find your life is enriched by being a part of theirs and helping them grow in relationship with God.

We have classes for Nursery, Pre-K (ages 2 ½ - 5), Multi-Age (Grades K – 6) and Junior High/High School Age (Grades 7 – 12). We are using the Whole People of God curriculum, an online curriculum which is very user-friendly! Teachers will again sign up for one week of the month. All materials are easily accessed online!

We have many wonderful people who have signed up to teach already, but could still use a few more volunteers to fill our empty slots. See Sarah Heend or Linda Lowry for more information.

SO YOU WANT TO BE AN ACOLYTE! (Grades K & up) ACOLYTE TRAINING/REFRESHER - Sunday, August 27

Lighting the candles and opening the Bible are one of the first things that happen in our Sunday morning worship services. It's a very important part of our worship experience. If you want to be an acolyte or acolyte assistant, or if you have been an acolyte and want a refresher on candle lighting, please let Linda Lowry know. We'll be having an Acolyte Training/Refresher following worship on August 27. Have a snack in Fellowship Hall and then meet in the Sanctuary. Acolyte assistants are those in grades K and 1, and Acolytes are grades 2 and up (although you may choose to be an assistant, also). Questions, see Mrs. Lowry.

LOOKING AHEAD:

Sunday, Sept. 10 Youth Group Planning Meeting (Grades 1 – 12)
In the Pavilion at 4:30

The Note

Conflict: Lately, I have been feeling conflicted. You see, the DiVestas have had some bad luck. You know the feeling where just nothing is going your way. We've all been through it (at least I hope we've all been through it). I want to scream why do these bad things keep happening. I try to be a good person. I try to do good things. Why am I being punished? But, then, I immediately have these thoughts, and I am instantly reminded even though we are struggling right now, we still have our house, we still live in a mostly peaceful climate (despite two parties trying to rip us apart), we are still healthy, and our boys are still happy (most of the time.. they are kids). So, do I have a right to feel beaten down by our recent bad luck, because I know our luck is still better than some? I know you're probably thinking what bad luck... so let me give you a back story... probably started in April or so, we owed a few THOUSAND dollars more than we usually do in taxes. Yes. Thousands. Apparently, we hit some magical threshold that means we owe more money, because we made a little more than usual. So, basically, I worked extra hard to give all the extra money back. Then, Aaron got a speeding ticket. Yes, it was totally his fault but still stings. Then, we get in an accident. Of course, the other driver doesn't have insurance so we're out our deductible. THEN, the a/c gives out. At that point, it was almost comical. ::almost:: So, yes. We are technically fine, and I am trying to be the eternal optimist that I claim to be; however, I am conflicted. I am angry...but still thankful and trying to find the balance in between. So, this month, again, I ask for your prayers. Pray that we continue to be healthy, and that our money troubles can subside anytime now.

Ok, so now you may have noticed, that I haven't been as upbeat as usual. Occasionally, I may find myself dragging, but I promise I am working my way out of it. And, one way to do that, is to prepare for FALL MUSIC! YAY!!!! It is no surprise that fall is my favorite season so maybe listening and preparing for the fall semester will put me in a much better mood. It is officially CHRISTMAS in JULY! I love picking out our cantata music. ::Shameless Plug:: Remember, anyone can join us. I generally start cantata rehearsals the first week in October. Furthermore, Myrna and I will be

IVY CHAPEL UCC FOOD PANTRY MINISTRY

Since the abrupt closing of Joint Neighborhood Ministry (JNM) on May 31, a number of us have been looking around for another ministry which seems like a good fit for our congregation to continue giving to those in need. There are certainly many worthy possibilities out there to consider.

Two options we are exploring are: Ritenour Co-Care Food Pantry (9516 Rear Lackland Drive Overland, MO 63114) www.ritenourcocare.org and Isaiah 58 Ministries (2149 S. Grand Avenue St. Louis, MO 63104) www.i58ministries.org

Pastor Dan has phoned Isaiah 58 Ministries, but we have not yet visited this pantry. Six of us, including myself, Pastor Dan, Tom and Debbie Glenn, Art Spellmeyer and Paul Owoc, visited Ritenour Co-Care Pantry on June 21. We hope also to visit Isaiah 58 Ministries.

In the meantime, I am taking fresh produce from the garden to Loaves and Fishes, a homeless shelter for men on McKelvey Road. When we make a food pantry decision, we will switch over. Many Ivy Chapel UCC members have been so good about bringing food, canned goods, toiletries, etc. down through the years!! Please continue to do so as the need will continue ☺ ☺

God bless you and thanks for your continued generosity!! Russ Washburn

KEEP SAT URDAY , AUGUST 19, 9am, ON YOUR CALENDAR—IT'S WORKDAY!!!!

Let's spruce-up our church property for Rally Day!

Rally Day!

Clear your calendars for Sunday, August 20th and get ready to help Ivy Chapel's children and youth start the new Sunday School year with a bang. Our worship service is going to explore how we can serve God with our own unique talents and gifts. We'll take the celebration right into our annual Rally Day luncheon. Grab your party hats, dig out your favorite recipe for lunch and help kick off a new Sunday School season.

The program will include carols, bagpipers, choir selections and brass ensembles. A marimba band will again be part of the preconcert music. Making their debuts this year are tenor Leslie Johnson, a soloist with the Gospel Symphonic Choir, and Maria Knasel, a MUNY teen.

Individual tickets are $24 (group advanced ticket sale). Please make your check payable to Dottie Foster or turn in cash by SEPTEMBER 15. Tickets and seating information will be distributed in November. Questions? Contact Dottie Foster: 314.878.4286 or mctfoster@att.net

Mary and Martha Group

Dessert for a Dollar is coming during Fellowship Hour on August 13th. These small plates of dessert for two people will be sold for $1.00. They make a tasty Sunday dessert, small gifts for friends, neighbors and family, lunch box treats or can be frozen for later. The proceeds will be divided equally between Ivy Chapel's Budget and Purchase of Books for Caroline Mission and/or Lydia's House. We will need contributions of wrapped 2-serving baked items brought to Fellowship Hall on Sunday morning before worship on the 13th. Small plates and plastic bags for wrapping will be available at the Dierberg's Gift Card Table the two Sundays prior to the Sale (July 30 and August 6).

The next Mary and Martha Meeting is on Tuesday, August 15th in the Multipurpose Room and we will plan for the remainder of the year.

We plan to go to Westport Playhouse in September to see Church Basement Ladies. Watch The Ivy Vine and the KYP for details.

attending a reading session the first weekend of August. So, hopefully, we will get some new music that we can use for the whole year!

I have a couple announcements so I hope you're still reading. First, the men's choir will be singing August 20th. No prerequisites required. You do not need to join choir. You just need to be a man (or sing tenor). We will rehearse the week before on August 16th and before worship Sunday. The music is already picked out. It is on the table in the multipurpose room. I hope you will join us! Secondly, the ladies' choir will perform on the 27th! Yay! Same deal here. No prerequisites. You do not need to join choir. You just need to be a lady or able to sing a ladies' part. I have ordered this music, and I will let you know when it is in. We will rehearse the 16th as well (if the music is in), and the 23 as well as the Sunday before worship. I certainly hope you will considering joining us. I love doing these smaller choir groups, and I hope you enjoy it too.

Well...I think that's it for now. Enjoy the rest of your summer, and keep smiling!
