Come Along on the Journey

New discoveries are on the horizon. This is one refreshing, perpetual, joyous proclamation of God's people. As followers of Christ, you and I celebrate that the Gospel of Jesus Christ is an uplifting, hope-giving promise of God. It's never too late. Through Jesus Christ, we are offered a fresh start. God is steadfast. God's love never runs out; never ends. Yes, God in Christ Jesus is able "to make all things new!" This is a lofty promise; one which may, at times, come across as a seemingly preposterous claim. And yet... you and I continue receiving from God; discovering new joys and beauties as we move through this earthly life.

The season of autumn overflows with countless, magnificent phenomena. One of the peculiarities of autumn is the "homecoming football game" accompanied by an imaginative array of satellite "homecoming events." It tends to become an energizing experience that emotionally winds people up. Way beyond anything football-related, the pure notion of "homecoming" is one filled with heartwarming sentiment.

From a Christian faith perspective, returning to God is a spiritual "homecoming." Deceased UCC Pastor Tom Hunter expressed this so beautifully in a song he wrote: "Come on in from the storm. Come and listen to my song. It's the song of a lost soul coming home. Maybe you've sung it, too, when you thought that you were through and you didn't think you had anything left to do. We're comin' home; we're comin' home! With laughing tears of joy, we're coming home. Knowing everything's not gone. The nighttime has a dawn. And it sings another song - comin' home." (Tom Hunter, 1976)

There's a fascinating "domino sequence" in the last half of the first chapter of the Gospel of John. John the Baptist is in the process of passing the torch to Jesus. One day, John is baptizing disciples in the River Jordan.

The next day, Jesus of Nazareth comes to the riverbank and invites John to baptize him.

The next day, Jesus returns. John proclaims Jesus is the Lamb of God. Two of John's disciples begin tagging along after Jesus, and they ask, "Where are you going?" Jesus replies, "Come and see."

The next day, Jesus goes to Galilee to recruit his own disciples. Jesus finds Philip and invites, "Follow me." Philip finds Nathanael and tells him, "We've found the One of whom the prophets wrote - Jesus, son of Joseph." Nathanael reacts, "Can anything good come out of Nazareth?" Philip replies, "Come and see."

Together, Philip and Nathanael go to Jesus. When they meet, Nathanael is astonished that Jesus

knows all about him although they have just met one another for the first time. Nathanael praises Jesus, proclaiming, "Teacher, you are the Son of God!" (John 1:24-51)

This sequence is an uplifting chain reaction. I embrace this Gospel Word as a holy message that Christ's "following" multiplies in mysterious, lovely, abundant ways. The journey begins with Jesus extending an invitation, "Come and see." Soon, Jesus' followers are extending the very same invitation to others. People accept the invitation, and the community of disciples grows!

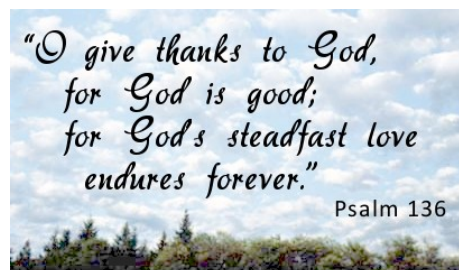

Suddenly, here we are in the Year of our Lord 2017. You and I can do as Philip and other early disciples of Jesus Christ faithfully did. In the Spirit of our Invitational Savior, we can invite, "Come and see." Even as we ourselves are still in the process of coming and seeing, you and I can offer Christ's invitation, "Come and see."

Our Ivy Chapel United Church of Christ stewardship emphasis this autumn is "Journey to Generosity." You are invited. Accept God's invitation. May your soul be touched and moved to action by God's generosity. "From Christ's fullness, we all have received, grace upon grace." (John 1:16) "Freely you have received; freely give." (Matthew 10:8) "O the depth of the riches and wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable are God's judgments and how inscrutable are God's ways!" (Romans 11:33 NRSV) "Have you ever come on anything quite like this extravagant generosity of God, this deep, deep wisdom? It's way over our heads. We'll never figure it out." (Romans 11:33 The Message)

Come along on the Journey. It can become a momentous one. Your involvement is an integral part of our church's Journey becoming momentous.

Consider this your "homecoming" invitation. Yes, you're invited! It's the song of a lost soul comin' home. Nighttime has a dawn. With laughing tears of joy, we're comin' home! There's an Eternity to discover. Come along on the Journey.

New discoveries are forever ahead of us.

Come and see,
Pastor Dan

Thank You...

Dear members of Ivy Chapel:

I pray this note finds you and your families well. I wanted to give you an update on the Baby Blue Pantry. We are still up and running and God has continued to bless it. The generous offering that your congregation so beautifully gave is still blessing it. We are just half through the offering. We cannot believe how long it has lasted—maybe like the loaves and fishes?

I just wanted to touch base to let you know the gratitude and appreciation that we have for the generous gift that is still helping families. I hope to send pictures soon. [Picture sheet posted in Fellowship Hall]

Thank you and God bless you,
Kathy Poss, Wee Care Learning Center Director

FIRE SAFETY UPDATE

The Trustees are happy to announce that Ivy Chapel is now protected by a new "monitored" fire alarm system. This is now a single, standalone alarm system for both floor levels. Although this experience proved to be complex, lengthy and exasperating, with God's grace we endured. Ivy Chapel is blessed to have a congregation, whose support and willingness to donate funds allowed us to update and improve the safety our facility.

While we were in the fire mode, we used this opportunity to evaluate Ivy with regards to fire extinguishers, exit lights and emergency lights. A few additional fire extinguishers have been purchased to replace older models. As well, six exit lights have been replaced and a few emergency lights have been added by suggestion from the Monarch Fire Inspector.

HABITAT FOR HUMANITY HOUSE BUILD:

Plans are underway for the UCC Habitat House build. We, along with other local UCC churches, will be building a new house in the Tiffany neighborhood close to Cardinal Glennon Hospital. Work dates have not been decided, but we can start our involvement with the collection for our monetary pledge to the house. Watch for the Ivy Chapel LEGO house in Fellowship Hall during fellowship time. Each LEGO block will be a $10 donation. Help our house grow!

ALL YOUTH FAMILY TRIP TO THE ZOO!

Sunday, Oct. 1

Our All Youth Group family trip to the Zoo is Sunday, October 1, following worship. Along with enjoying the Zoo exhibits, Shannon Farrell will be sharing some "insider information" about the "residents" at the Primate House; including hopefully feeding some lemurs and seeing some "enrichment behaviors". Following Shannon's special presentation everyone is free to explore the zoo at their leisure. EVERYONE IS INVITED – (Please note that you have to be seven years old or older to feed the lemurs). We have done this for several years and everyone always has a great time! You may eat on the way to the zoo or join us at the Lakeside Café for lunch. We will gather as a group outside of the entrance to the right of the Primate House at 1:00 to begin Shannon's tour. Please RSVP to Linda Lowry so we know how many to plan for.

!It's Ivy Chapel UCC's
Trunk or Treat/Halloween Party
Join us on Sunday, October 29, 4:00
In the Ivy Chapel Parking Lot

What is Trunk or Treat? A fun, safe, fellowship event to celebrate Halloween!

How it works: Ivy Chapel UCC members who wish to provide treats for our young trick-or-treaters come to church and park in the parking lot. We encourage everyone to dress in costume and to decorate your trunk or vehicle. Adults stay by their cars, while the children trick or treat their way around the parking lot.

Following Trick or treating we will enjoy a hot dog roast and other Halloween activities in the pavilion.

Bring a side dish to share!

Kids love candy at Halloween but you're welcome to hand out other items, too
-such as pencils, stickers, or even homemade goodies!!

While we're enjoying our treats, let's share with others.

Bring a jar of peanut butter or a few cans of food!

Or fill our cauldron with donations for Joint Neighborhood Ministries.

Those Ivy Chapel members providing candy/treats should arrive around 3:30 in the upper parking lot and park in designated spots around the outer edge of the lot.

Trick or treating begins at 4:00 p.m.

To sign up to provide your trunk or to trick or treat see the poster in the Narthex.

Or contact Linda Lowry (linda@ivychapel.org)

YOUTH ARE NEEDED TO HELP DECORATE FOR TRUNK BEFOREHAND, AS WELL AS HELPING OUR LITTLE ONES WITH THEIR PROJECTS.

Bring decorations to church on Sunday morning if you have them.

We can decorate following fellowship worship.

The Note

As I am writing this, I can feel the slide into the craziness that fall has somehow become. I love fall. We know it's my favorite season, but has it always been so busy? I was talking to a student just the other day about how I could do something the 15th of October but not any later than that as all the weekends seem to mold together into the Thanksgiving/Advent/Christmas season. Seriously, you want to plan something with the DiVesta's...let's try January. So, as usual, I put on my optimism hat and just breathe. Here we are. My favorite season albeit a little busy. It is (going to be) beautiful. The leaves change colors. We have cool nights, hot chocolate, soup and sweaters. While it may be busy, I am going to make the most of it and be thankful for the time I do have to spend doing absolutely nothing in the best season of the year. On the personal note, please keep the prayers coming for our family.

Seeing that this will be released in October, it is OFFICIALLY Cantata time. Our first Cantata rehearsal will be October 4th (pending the arrival of the Cantata music). I got a little behind this year. I just could not find exactly what I was looking for, but now I think I found it. I am so excited to share it with you all. If you would like to be a participant rather than an observer, we NEED you. I could really use some extra voices this year so please see me if you are interested. You do NOT need to be a regular choir member to join in on the cantata fun. And, as a shameless plug, the Cantata is on my birthday this year so consider joining us as a birthday present to me! (just kidding...sort of...not really...please join).

We have some great music planned for this fall so I certainly hope the Chancel Choir adds to your worship experience. If you ever want to join us as we make a joyful noise for the Lord, please do. Until next time...peace my friends...and keep smiling.

Isaiah 58 will accept donations of clothing for their thrift closet. Place items in plastic grocery bags in the coatroom area, marked with Isaiah 58. They also can use plastic bags and egg cartons.

As a guide for your donating, please take the Meal a Month Chart sheet—posted in Fellowship Hall. ☪

We will also continue to collect food for Circle of Concern in Valley Park serving residents of the West County area. Please put donations for both facilities on the shelves in the coat area.

REFORMATION
2017 It's Still All About Jesus

Word of the Lord Endures Forever. The motto of the Lutheran Reformation, a confident expression of the enduring power and authority of God's Word.

"The start of the Reformation is usually dated to Luther's nailing of his "95 Theses on the Power and Efficacy of Indulgences" to the church door in Wittenberg on October 31st 1517. The "95 Theses" were propositions written in Latin that he wished to discuss, in the academic custom of the day, in an open debate at the university. Luther, then an obscure theologian and minister, was outraged by the behaviour of Johann Tetzel, a Dominican friar who was selling indulgences to raise money to fund the pet project of his boss, Pope Leo X: the reconstruction of St. Peter's Basilica in Rome. Hand over your money, went Tetzel's sales pitch, and you can ensure that your dead relatives are not stuck in purgatory. This crude commercialisation of the doctrine of indulgences, encapsulated in Tetzel's slogan—"As soon as the coin in the coffer rings, so the soul from purgatory springs"—was, to Luther, "the pious defrauding of the faithful" and a glaring symptom of the need for broad reform. Pinning a list of propositions to the church door, which doubled as the university notice board, was a standard way to announce a public debate. "
