2018 October

We are living through autumn of this calendar year, my friends. In more ways than one, you and I are living through “an autumn.” One prayer which Scripture offers humankind is: “I pray that, according to the riches of God’s glory, God may grant that you may be strengthened in your inner being with power through God’s Spirit, and that Christ may live in your hearts through faith as you are being rooted and grounded in love. I pray that you may have the power to comprehend with all the saints, what is the breadth and length and height and depth, and to know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge, so that you may be filled with all the fullness of God.” (Ephesians 3:16-19)

I am trying to be more joyful these days.

As with so many things, I recall being tremendously moved and emotionally inspired by Christian faith when I was a boy. The memory I have of that time is that, at a young age, I was completely taken with God and with the Gospel. Thinking back on it now, those seem like days when I was fully “into God” and when I exuded joy. My growing years were ample with pure joy.

The early phase of my life was a wondrous, joyous time! I felt so thoroughly the sentiment expressed in a hymn text (circa 1900) composed by Marie Payne Ferguson: “Joys are flowing like a river, Since the Comforter has come. He abides with us forever, Makes the trusting heart His home... See, a fruitful field is growing, Blessed fruit of righteousness. And the streams of life are flowing In the lonely wilderness. Blessed quietness, holy quietness, what assurance in my soul! On the stormy sea He speaks peace to me. How the billows cease to roll.”

Ah, yes, childhood was, for me, a largely joyous, un-conflicted time.

Now that I am an adult (presumed a “grown-up”!), many times, I find myself yearning for innocence and faithfulness which came so naturally in my youth. Today, I often pine for that naiveté which I used to have. Maybe you also sometimes experience feelings like these?

With age, I perceive that I must actively resist becoming cynical and suspicious. Nowadays, I’ve got ‘nostalgia’ instead of ‘naiveté’! Still, my hope is that I have acquired some additional gifts along the way that I did not display as a young boy. Over the course of this earthly journey, could it be that God is enhancing within me sensitivity, compassion, stubbornness for pursuing God’s justice, wider perspective, patience, some wisdom, creativity and openness? No, I do not display all of these virtues daily. Far from it! And yet, by the grace of God, these God-given gifts do shine through in my life from time to time.

So, while I have lost my boyish naivet , God is blessing me in ever-new ways. I rejoice in this! And there it is... God's joy!

I have a hunch this is the "fullness" that the Apostle Paul is describing when he writes: "Grace to you and peace, from God.... In our prayers for you, we always thank God,...for we have heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and of the love you have for all the saints,... You have heard of this hope before in the word of the truth, the Gospel that has come to you. Just as it is bearing fruit and growing in the whole world, so it has been bearing fruit among yourselves from the day you heard it and truly comprehended the grace of God.... May you be made strong with all the strength that comes from God's glorious power, and may you be prepared to endure everything with patience, while joyfully giving thanks to God, who has enabled you to share in the inheritance of the saints in the light. God has rescued us...and transferred us into the realm of God's beloved Son.... For in Christ the whole fullness of God lives, and you have come to fullness in Christ." (Colossians 1:2-6, 11-13 and 2:9-10)

I want to live more joyfully. I know God wants me to. I'm trying. I really am.

A good friend is helping me appreciate that Christ Jesus is the One who knows my deepest pain and my greatest joy. Having Someone love me this intimately is a sacred gift. This is pure, true, full "joy." I pray that you may receive such joy.

May you be filled with God's joy,
Pastor Dan

*"When morning gilds the skies, My heart awaking cries:
May Jesus Christ be praised!...*

Be this while life is mine My canticle divine:

May Jesus Christ be praised!

Be this th' eternal song, through all the ages long:

May Jesus Christ be praised!"

(translated from 19th century German by Edward Caswall)

"When we gather around the table and eat from the same loaf and drink from the same cup, we are most vulnerable to one another... The beauty of the Eucharist is precisely that it is the place where a vulnerable God invites vulnerable people to come together in a peaceful meal. When we break bread together and give it to each another, fear vanishes, and God becomes very close."

TOTENFEST~Sunday, November 4:

You will recall one of the traditions of our forebears in Christian faith is the celebration of "Totenfest" (German for 'The Festival of the Dead'). Ivy Chapel will share together in this sacred ritual. Since All Saints' Day is November 1st. We'll observe "Totenfest" during worship on November 4. You are invited and encouraged to submit the names of those you love who have died within this past year. Please provide the name(s) IN PRINT to our church office by October 21. A printed list will be posted just outside Pastor Dan's study. Please stop by to verify that the name—and spelling—of each person you would like recognized is on the list. ### LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR

RALLY DAY RECAP

On Youth Sunday we discovered “Who is my Neighbor” and our youth asked us “How can we love our neighbor?”
During our Rally Day celebration we focused on the theme “Love Your Neighbor”!

Over the past several weeks we collected a SPECIAL OFFERING to purchase a Gift of Love through Heifer International. We were aiming to purchase the “Milk Menagerie” – two goats, a water buffalo and a heifer! The cost – $1,000! Could we do it? WE DID! As of September 9 we had more than $1475!!

Now we can purchase additional animals and help more families to improve the conditions of their lives! What a wonderful way to spread God’s love to our neighbors in need around the world. Check out the children’s book “Beatrice’s Goat” to find out how families are helped by our Heifer International gift.

It's Ivy Chapel UCC's Trunk or Treat/Halloween Party

Join us on Sunday, October 28, 4:00pm

In the Ivy Chapel Parking Lot

FILL OUR CAULDRON WITH DONATIONS FOR ISAIAH 58.

While we're enjoying our treats, let's share with others.

Bring a jar of peanut butter or a few cans of food!

Monetary donations are also welcome.

What is Trunk or Treat? A fun, safe, fellowship event to celebrate Halloween!

How it works: Ivy Chapel UCC members who wish to provide treats for our young trick-or-treaters come to church and park in the parking lot. We encourage everyone to dress in costume and to decorate your trunk or vehicle. Adults stay by their cars, while the children trick or treat their way around the parking lot.

Following Trick or treating we will enjoy a hot dog roast and other Halloween activities in the pavilion.

Bring a side dish to share!

Those Ivy Chapel members providing candy/treats should arrive around 3:30pm in the upper parking lot and park in designated spots around the outer edge of the lot.

Trick or treating begins at 4:00pm.

Kids love candy at Halloween but you may hand out other items, such as pencils, stickers, or homemade goodies!! To sign up to provide your trunk or to trick or treat see the poster in the Narthex. Or contact Linda Lowry ([linda@ivy chapel.org](mailto:linda@ivy chapel.org))

YOUTH ARE NEEDED TO HELP DECORATE THE PAVILION AREA BEFOREHAND, AS WELL AS HELPING OUR LITTLE ONES WITH THEIR PROJECTS.

Bring decorations to church on Sunday morning
if you have them.

Then come early to help decorate the pavilion.

The Note

October. Easily one of my favorite months. It's hard to imagine October being here since as I write it is still in 90's and will be for a week. BUT, I am eagerly anticipating a little bit of chill in the air. At the same time, I have such a hard time letting go of this summer. I feel like I was so busy all the time, and here we are at fall when we know life can get a little hectic. But, let's be honest. It's the time in my life where everything moves at a frantic pace. While I push for the next season, the next thing, I am trying so hard to slow down and savor some moments with the boys. I find myself wondering with Miller, "Will this be the last snuggle, the last kiss, the last hand holding?" He is growing so fast, and I know it is only a matter of time before he grows too old for such trivial things. I dread the day. Charlie is in his final year of preschool. Before you know it, I'll have two elementary school kids. The years are short, my friends. Becoming a parent has strengthened my personal relationship with Jesus. Being a parent has put me in a place to fully understand giving up your life for someone. We moved here due to Miller. We built this life, because we thought it would be good for our children. Everything I have done in the past 10 years has been for someone else. And to think I am only tapping the surface of the love our Heavenly Father has for us, is just an astounding thought to me.

As you may know when October hits, it's officially Christmas MUSIC time for me. My piano students begin to prepare their Christmas repertoire, and the choir begins rehearsing for the Christmas cantata. This year the cantata will be on December 16th during worship. If you have considered joining us for this special performance, please do. We need as many of you as possible to make this year great! We have solos, small groups, friends and family choir as well as congregational parts. This year I plan on using every single one of you! If you wish to join us for rehearsal, we will meet every Wednesday at 8pm after regular Chancel Choir rehearsal. If you would like to participate in any way but aren't sure how, please see me and let's make it happen. It sure has been great having the choir back in the loft this

Christian Action UCC Habitat for Humanity house

After a year of changes for Habitat for Humanity (relocation of their offices and RESTORE to S. Grand in the city) our UCC house build is starting up again to finish the house started this past spring and making a home for homeowner Lawrence and his kids.

Ivy Chapel's work day is scheduled for Saturday, November 10. We need two additional people to join us and members of Hope UCC Church. Our contingent will meet at Ivy Chapel at 7 a.m. Bring your own lunch and work gloves. Necessary forms will be filled out on-site. We will be working on the final push to get this house done! Please let Marsha Ramey know if you are able to help or have questions. (marramey@yahoo.com or 636-405-2576)

However, if using a paintbrush or hammer is not in your skill set remember that ALL of Ivy Chapel can help in meeting our pledge to this build! The LEGO house will be waiting in the fellowship hall, and you can help it grow by contributing $10 a brick. Let's build those walls!

Christian Education SUNDAY SCHOOL TEACHER UPDATE

Thank you to all the people who have agreed to teach Sunday School and work in the nursery. We are thrilled to welcome some new teachers! We appreciate all those who give of their time and talents to share God's love with our young people.

We still need a few substitutes.

We would like to have a few people ready to teach Sunday School or work in the nursery if one of our regulars is unable to be there. Please contact Sarah Heend if you would be able to help out when needed.

past month, and I am eagerly anticipating a great choir season. Thank you all for all you do.

Until next time...

Mary and Martha Wms Group

The Mary and Martha Women's Group met on Sept. 18th and carpoled to the Isaiah 58 Food Pantry in the Shaw Neighborhood at the Disciples of Christ Church. We were shown around the facilities by Hunger Program Director Meredith Jackson who talked about their services. They have been in operation for 50 yrs. and serve about 500 to 800 people per month. For about an hour we assembled hygiene bags which are placed in each bag of groceries and will be given out in the next few weeks.

Our next meeting is Tuesday, October 16th in the Multipurpose Room at Ivy Chapel at 1p.m. Judy Jung from Duever's Nursery who brings plants for our Plant Sale in the spring will come to talk and answer questions about Winterizing our Gardens for the coming winter season (for example, the best time to prune a plant). If you have a specific question please write it down and give it to Kay Kreder or any M&M Member by Sun. Oct. 14th. We will give the questions to Judy prior to the meeting and she will answer the questions at the meeting.

Since Consecration Sunday is October 21st,
Ivy Chapel's Church Council will be Meeting on Monday, October 22nd at 7pm
(rather than the usual third Monday)

HarvestFest

HarvestFest 2019 Leader(s) Needed: Would you serve as HarvestFest Chair or Co-Chair?

Every two years, our congregation has hosted a major fundraiser which we call "HarvestFest." This event is a highly enjoyable evening and a major fundraiser. Historically, each Ivy HarvestFest has generated over $5,000 in income for God's ministries at Ivy Chapel United Church of Christ. On each occasion, our congregation has very generously tithed (10 % of HarvestFest "net income") to partners in ministry (such as Circle of Concern, Lydia's House, JNM, Isaiah 58 Ministries, etc.). Therefore, this exceptional event has served both as a means to support Ivy Chapel UCC and as a means of outreach in support of wider ministries. Glory be to God! Wouldn't it be wonderful for us to continue this "giving tradition"!

What is needed is a Chairperson (or two). In order to host in 2019, we are in need of one or two individuals who will coordinate this much-loved event.

There are many, many Ivy Chapel UCC individuals who have helped previously with various aspects of HarvestFest and who are willing to take on these roles again. In many regards, each HarvestFest has become an endeavor actively embraced by the majority of our congregation. This is extremely significant. A prospective Chairperson will be able to rely on help from this extensive array of very capable volunteers.

Our Council is hopeful that we can organize and host our next Ivy Chapel "HarvestFest" in 2019.

Preparations will need to begin soon. Would you serve as HarvestFest Chair or Co-Chair?

Please contact Moderator Jo Ann Moody or Pastor Dan to discuss this. Thank you.

BABY BLUE PANTRY NEWS

Dear Ivy Friends,

I pray this note finds you all well. I want to give you an update on Baby Blue Pantry. It keeps giving and giving! Today a mom requested a size of diapers we didn't have in the pantry. We used some of our Ivy Chapel Blessing Funds and purchased the size she needed. The mother was thrilled. We aren't even half way through the offering your congregation so graciously gave. We are striving to be thrifty and great stewards.

I will keep you all updated on our unified mission.

Thank you so much for your blessed gifts for the babies!

NEIGHBORS IN NEED

Sunday, October 7 is Neighbors in Need (NIN) a special mission offering of the United Church of Christ that supports ministries of justice and compassion throughout the United States. One-third of NIN funds support the Council for American Indian Ministry (CAIM). Two-thirds of this offering is used by the UCC's Justice and Witness Ministries (JWM) to support a variety of justice initiatives, advocacy efforts, and direct service projects through grants. Neighbors in Need grants are awarded to UCC churches and organizations doing justice work in their communities. These grants fund projects whose work

Trustees

As we look forward to a beautiful fall season, the Trustees ended the summer with a bang. Along with the normal seasonal chores, the following was also accomplished.

Great care was taken to create an Emergency Manual specific to Ivy Chapel. The manual was approved at the August Council meeting. Soon, you will see it hanging in various strategic locations. A big Thank You to Nancy Litzinger for her tireless proofreading and editing!

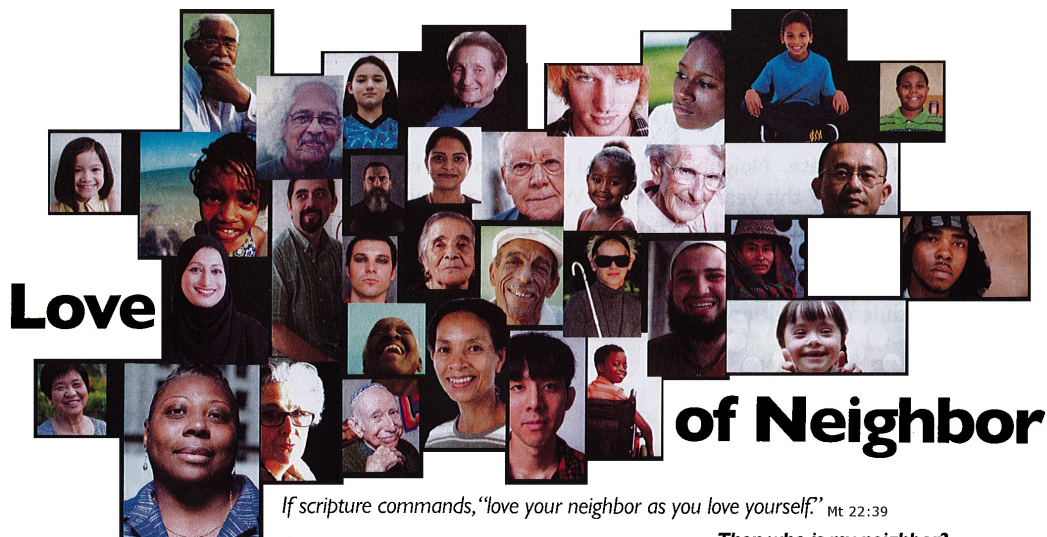

Due to a spider problem, along with other creepy crawlies, eight bids were acquired from professional exterminators. Blue Chip Pest Control was selected and services have begun. Along the outside of the building you may notice some little black boxes, don't worry, that's part of their program!

Finally, the north sign along Woods Mill Road had served its time, peeling and deteriorating beyond repair. The idea to replace the sign was taken to Council, discussed and approved. Please take a look the new replacement. We hope you like it!

ranges from direct service to community organizing and advocacy to address systemic injustice. This year, special consideration will be given to projects focusing on serving our immigrant neighbors and communities.

The 2018 theme is "Love of Neighbor".

If scripture commands, "love your neighbor as you love yourself," Mt 22:39
