Spirit Eternal

Our United Church of Christ has a national church website which offers an impressive array of messages and ministries. One of the lively resources which anyone may access through our denomination's website is UCC Still-Speaking Daily Devotional! <https://www.ucc.org/daily-devotional/>

A group of UCC pastors contribute daily, spiritual reflections to this site. On a couple of different occasions during the COVID-19 Pandemic, the Still-Speaking Writers' Group has compiled booklets which have been provided to local church clergy. The first was distributed in 2020, and it was given the succinct title, "EMERGE." The second booklet, distributed in 2021, was entitled, "What if?" (This question will strike a chord with anyone who was part of Ivy Chapel UCC back in 2011. That year, our congregation embarked together on a 'visionary journey' with a "fill-in-the-blank" theme: "What if...?" ) The 2021 UCC Still-Speaking Writers' Group booklet is a modest 21 pages. Each page bears one "What if?" question for reflection. One of this booklet's insightful questions is:

What if you actually gave thanks for the very breath in your body?

"Breathe on me, Breath of God; fill me with life anew, That I may love the way you love, and do what you would do." (Edwin Hatch) Clearly, breathing is foundational to human life. In the concise, sacred wisdom of Adriene Mishler, "The body comes to stillness, but breathing continues."

The "Spirit of God" is portrayed, at times, as divine breath or holy wind. You will recall that the New Testament Greek word "pneuma" may be translated as several, different English words, including "breath," or "wind," or "spirit."

The traditional Gospel text for the Sunday one week after Easter Sunday every year is John 20:19-31. This Scripture recounts two of Jesus' post-Resurrection appearances. It leads off on the evening of Resurrection Day. "Jesus came and stood among them and said, 'Peace be with you.' After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced... Jesus said to them again, 'Peace be with you. As God has sent me, so I send you.' When Jesus had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, 'Receive the Holy Spirit.'" (John 20:19-22) Receive the Holy Breath! This is a portion of God's Word which I find tremendously powerful. Christ's central actions in this exchange are showing the disciples his wounds and breathing. To convey to the disciples that he truly is alive, Jesus breathes on them. The disciples are able to feel Jesus exhaling. They feel his breath. Think of this sensation! What more direct way to assure them that he is alive and breathing than for the Risen Christ to breathe on his followers? Genius!

Breathing is an act of life. Yet, much of the time, we breathe subconsciously. We breathe so automatically that we fail to value breathing as a gift and a blessing. But it is miraculous! The breath of life is a gift from God. This is a truth to value: Human beings are children of God. By the grace of God, human beings breathe!

Breath by breath, God is with us. Breath by breath, our lungs inhale oxygen. Molecules of O<sub>2</sub> enter human lungs and contact the walls of the lungs at capillary exchange sites (alveoli) where oxygen enriches blood cells. Breath by breath, oxygen nourishes human blood into oxygen-rich blood cells! Then these nourished, red blood cells travel to the rest of the body to deliver energy and life! Fascinating and wonderful! "You have searched me, O God, and you know me... Where can I go to get away from your Spirit? Where can I go to escape your presence?... I praise you that I am fearfully and wonderfully made! Wonderful are your works! That I know very well!" (Psalm 139:2, 7, 14)

God's design is marvelous! Our calling as Christ's followers is to be growing, 'grace-breathing' children of Most High God. This faith-walk does not require all giant steps. Sure, every now and then, circumstances do call on us to make "leaps" of faith. However, by and large, Jesus Christ steadily is calling on each of us to follow one moment, one act, one step, one breath at a time. Seeking to serve as givers of Christ's pure love is this basic.

Everywhere that we look in the world today, there appears to be discord and turmoil. Much threatens to be spinning out of control. In this contemporary climate, we risk feeling overwhelmed. And yet, may we not despair. God's prophet encourages us not to be dismayed. (Isaiah 41:8-10 and Isaiah 43:1-3) The Planet Earth and humankind are dearly loved parts of God's creation. Each moment, God abundantly blesses creation with life! (John 10) May each soul continue discovering life's true center in Christ. We have been given ears to hear, eyes to see, and lips to tell. "All things bright and beautiful, All creatures great and small, All things wise and wonderful, The Lord God made them all. God gave us eyes to see them, And lips that we might tell How great is God Almighty, Who has

I am trusting Thee, Lord Jesus,
Trusting only Thee;
Trusting Thee for full salvation,
Great and free.

I am trusting Thee for pardon;
At Thy feet I bow,
For Thy grace and tender mercy Trusting now.

I am trusting Thee for cleansing
In the crimson flood;
Trusting Thee to make me holy
By Thy blood.

I am trusting Thee to guide me;
Thou alone shalt lead,
Ev'ry day and hour supplying
All my need.

I am trusting Thee for power;
Thine can never fail.
Words which Thou Thyself shalt give me
Must prevail.

I am trusting Thee, Lord Jesus;
Never let me fall.
I am trusting Thee forever
And for all.

Then you shall call, and the LORD will answer;
you shall cry for help, and he will say,
“Here I am.”

If you remove the yoke from among you,
the pointing of the finger,
the speaking of evil,
if you offer your food to the hungry
and satisfy the needs of the afflicted, then your light shall rise
in the darkness and your gloom be like the noonday.

The LORD will guide you continually

and satisfy your needs in parched places
and make your bones strong,
and you shall be like a watered garden,
like a spring of water
whose waters never fail.

Your ancient ruins shall be rebuilt;
you shall raise up the foundations of
many generations;
you shall be called the repairer of the breach,
the restorer of streets to live in.

Deacons

We are pleased to announce that Mike Waller began serving as Ivy Chapel UCC's Minister of Music/Worship Musician on June 1st. What a blessing to have Mike's talents and leadership in worship every Sunday! Praise God! (This newly configured Minister of Music/Worship Musician position is the role of providing 'instrumental' music. Please be aware that our Music Search Committee is continuing our search for an Ivy Chapel UCC Choir Director.)

Also... Many thanks to Earl and Kay Kreder and Jim and Diann Sheahan for providing refreshments for recent Fellowship time after worship. We are in need of future volunteers to provide refreshments on the first Sunday of each month. Please consider hosting this valuable time together and sign up for a Sunday on the list in the narthex.

And finally... We are still desperately in need of people to run the sanctuary sound system during worship... It is easier than you may think, and you can start simply by shadowing during worship. Please reach out to Sarah Wilson or Valerie Waterman, 314-630-3668 (with no obligation) if you have any interest at all...

By the way, all worship participants have been instructed just to talk louder if the mics are not operating on a particular Sunday, so there is no pressure :)))

Thank you for your support and participation!

made all things well!" (Cecil Alexander) Breath by sacred breath, Christ Jesus, the Savior of all the world, is striving to breathe love into all creation! May we live and breathe the Spirit of Christ.

Brother Roger of Taizé offers treasured guidance through his humble prayerbook called Praying in Silence of Heart (2007). I invite you to join me in praying Brother Roger's august words: "Holy Spirit, Comforter; to us, the humble of the Gospel, you have entrusted a mystery of hope. Even when we are unaware of it, it is there sustaining our trust. Holy Spirit, breath of the love of Christ, you are always present; deep in our souls you lay the trust of faith. Amen."

Breath by breath, may we serve as givers of God's Spirit Eternal,

Trustees

The Pavilion is looking good as new after getting an overhaul in advance of the June BBQ fundraiser. Some landscaping was done to fix some erosion problems around the Pavilion. The Pavilion itself was stained and the picnic tables were sanded and stained.

Annual fire inspections have been completed and Ivy Chapel was given a clean bill of health. There was one issue from the inspection by the Monarch Fire Marshal that has been remedied to their satisfaction. The Missouri State Fire Marshal came to inspect the "Preschool" area. They only needed the date of the UL inspection which was provided.

Join us for the next Highway Clean-Up, scheduled for August 28 after the church service (weather permitting).

Trustee workday is planned for Saturday, August 20th.
